TrustNet AI overall system architecture

Content-specific detection with shared assessment, evidence and reporting

Layers 9-10 support the application services. Audio, video and review describe the target design and require implementation and validation.